Bio

I'm on a Mission To Help One Million People Become Business Owners and Live The Lifestyle of Their Dreams.

I come from humble beginnings and started my first business at 15. Since then, I've started, bought, built and sold over 15 different corporations; 14 successful and one spectacular failure.

The failure lead me to discover there are 5 Fundamental Elements To Every Successful Business.

Starting from scratch, my last two companies were absorbed by large National Corporations within 4 years of opening.

After a near death battle with cancer, and while learning how to eat, drink and talk again, I wrote a book titled: "The 5 Fundamental Elements of Every Successful and Sellable Business." (Amazon Best Seller).

It is my mission to share this knowledge and Help One Million People Become Business Owners and Live The Lifestyle of Their Dreams and Walk Away Wealthy.

Contact me today and I promise to deliver information to your group they have never heard before, and it they will leave refreshed, invigorated, and with hope.
